

Media Release

Beijing Enterprises Water Group

24 April 2018

BEIJING ENTERPRISES WATER GROUP LIMITED FINALISES THE ACQUISITION OF TRILITY GROUP

Beijing Enterprises Water Group Limited (hereinafter referred to as "BEWG"), are pleased to announce it has completed the acquisition of the TRILITY Group. BEWG now have 100 percent ownership of the Australian Group who were founded in 1991 and are an established industry leader, solely dedicated to the delivery of long term water, wastewater, reuse and bio-solids solutions across Australia and New Zealand.

BEWG commented "We are delighted at conclusion of the transaction. It will enhance the strategic objectives of both TRILITY and BEWG by facilitating significant expansion both in Australia and internationally."

"BEWG will follow its proven post acquisition strategy of providing strong international support to local management."

TRILITY is a well-established, highly respected business which operates various facilities across Australia and New Zealand. Its capabilities span the full life cycle of water, delivering services to millions every day.

-ENDS-

About Beijing Enterprises Water Group Limited

Beijing Enterprises Water Group Limited (0371 HK) is listed on the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong, a subsidiary of Beijing Enterprises Holdings Limited, (stock code: 0392). BEWG strategically positions itself as a "leading integrated water system solution provider", and specializes in water service and environmental protection businesses, with waste water treatment as its core business segment. BEWG manages over 500 treatment facilities across China, Malaysia, Singapore, Portugal, Macau, Taiwan and now Australia and New Zealand.

For more information, please visit the BEWG's website at:

www.bewg.com.hk

Any further notes/comments:

"I am delighted to welcome our new shareholder Beijing Enterprises Water Group (BEWG) as they bring much valued international experience and know-how. This is a very exciting time for TRILITY, as our Group now has access to ever-stronger knowledge and skillsets to bring even more innovation and enhanced value to both our existing and new clients.

"I am very confident that with BEWG's backing the true potential of the TRILITY Group will be realised".

Francois Gouws, Managing Director TRILITY Group