TRILITY Pentair agreement formalised

Australian private water utility TRILITY is pleased to announce it has achieved Completion on purchase of the bulk of the business being acquired from Water Infrastructure Group Pty Ltd, a subsidiary of Pentair plc. One further contract is presently being finalised to complete the whole of the previously envisaged deal.

With this partial completion, TRILITY welcomes the Water Infrastructure Group Operations to its portfolio and looks forward to providing continued excellent services to its new clients and the communities which they serve.

TRILITY Managing Director, Francois Gouws said that TRILITY was delighted at being able to actually commence the management of these operations, thereby further strengthening its national footprint. He added that TRILITY continues to seek suitable growth opportunities in the sector, both within Australia and also in the wider water market.
