

Designed for personnel who work with sodium hypochlorite

To develop an understanding of sodium hypochlorite uses, properties and reactions

This course covers the issues of storage and handling sodium hypochlorite, the health effects and treatment if exposed to sodium hypochlorite and what to do in an emergency

According to Australian Standard AS3780:2008 The storage and handling of corrosive substances; all personnel handling corrosive substances must be able to identify the substance and it's properties and apply safety regulations and safe handling procedures.

This course covers the skills required to conduct routine maintenance checks and perform basic preventative maintenance.

Contents

- Properties and chemistry of sodium hypochlorite
- Australian Standards requirements
- Hazards of sodium hypochlorite
- Handling and storage of sodium hypochlorite
- Correct selection, use and care of personal protective equipment
- Emergency response, equipment and planning
- Safety data sheet
- Safe methods of operation, including tools and equipment
- Health effects of sodium hypochlorite

Locations

- Adelaide

Duration	1 day
Prerequisites	None
Requisites	None
Certification	Certificate of completion issued by TRILITY

www.trility.com.au

For further information

Western Australia

+61 8 9412 6100

South Australia and
Northern Territory

+61 8 8374 7800

Queensland

+61 7 3802 9500

Victoria

+61 3 9325 3900

Tasmania

+61 3 6391 7300

New South Wales and
Australian Capital Territory

+61 2 4350 8200

training@trility.com.au